Have you considered a gift to the Douglas Amman Choral Scholarship Fund?

About the Douglas Amman Choral Scholarship
Established in 2004, the Douglas Amman Choral Scholarship is awarded to students who have participated in the choral program at Ball State University. Recipients exemplify a positive attitude and enthusiasm for choral music and are leaders for their peers inside the Ball State Choirs. Donations to the Douglas Amman Choral Scholarship Fund can be made through the Ball State University Foundation (Account 06163).

About Douglas Amman
Douglas Amman is Director Emeritus of Choral Activities at Ball State University. He was the Director of Choral Activities at Ball State for 22 years, founded the Planet Earth Singers in Muncie, and served as the Director of Music for the College Avenue United Methodist Church. While at Ball State he formed the Chamber Choir and helped elevate the choral program to new heights through several national and international tours as well as invited performances at national conventions.
